Multicultural Film Series Opens

Portland residents are invited to help build "CommUnity" at Jefferson High School during the 7th annual Multicultural Film Festival which opens with a showing of the movie "The Pursuit of Happyness" starring Will Smith. This free community event takes place Monday, Oct. 1 starting at 6 p.m. in room C-39.

"Once again we celebrate and challenge our community. We celebrate the incredible affluence, power and influence our nation has," stated Jennifer Doncan, educator and founder of the festival.

Doncan will co-facilitate the film presentation with Opio Sokoni, general manager of Portland's KBMS and a producer of a politics and hip hop show.

Other Multicultural Film Festival showings are scheduled for Mondays - Nov. 5, Dec. 3, Jan. 7, Feb. 4, March 3, April 7, and May 5.

Cans Festival Fights Hunger

See a film for just three cans of food and help fight hunger at the same time at the 27th annual Cans Film Festival, Thursday, Sept. 27.

Simply donate three or more cans or boxes of non-perishable food at any Regal Cinemas and receive free admission to a movie and a free small popcorn. The offer is good for all shows except for starred attractions.

"Don't miss your chance to see a great film for a great bargain, just three cans of food," says Rachel Bristol, OFB's CEO. "The food that moviegoers donate during Cans Film Festival makes a big difference, helping regional food banks of the OFB Network fight hunger in their local communities."

If you don't have time to see a movie but still want to make a difference, donations of nonperishable food will be accepted at any Regal Cinemas location on Thursday, Sept. 27, from 11:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.

All food donations directly benefit the Oregon Food Bank Network in the communities where the food was collected.
