In Loving Memory

Minnie 'Gigi' Browder
A memorial service was held Dec. 11 at Rose City Cemetery for Minnie "Gigi" Browder.

She was born May 1, 1929 in Belzoni, Miss. to Beatrice Gibson and Willie Harper. In 1950, she married Louis Browder. He died in 1969.

Wanting to make life better for herself and children, Minnie moved her family to Portland where she became employed at The Arlington Club as a prep-cook. She went back to school to further her education and took a job with POIC as a counselor. She finished her working career in the shipyards at Dillingham until she was injured on the job and retired.

Minnie had many hobbies, but her favorites were gardening, sewing, entertaining her family and close friends, and shopping! She loved the Lord and her church family. She was a member of Mallory Church of Christ, where she faithfully served until Dec. 4, 2007 when God called her home.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Lesty Gibson. She leaves to cherish her memory, her sons, M. L. Van, Willie L. Browder (Liz) of Beaverton, Donnie Browder of Salem and Jacky Browder also of Beaverton; a daughter, Shirley Browder-Nain (Huarleen) of Vancouver; sisters, Iolar Browder of Portland, and Leona Young of Memphis, Tenn.; brothers McKinley Gibson (Frankie) of New Orleans, Bill Gibson of Portland, Willie Harper of Detroit and Lois Harper of Flint, Mich.; sister-in-law, Maggie Gibson of Portland; 11 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, adopted children and adopted grandchildren.

Minnie touched the lives of all who knew her. Her family and friends will miss her strength, wisdom, sense of humor and joy.
