

2007 Year in Review

Immigration Raid Breeds Fear

June 20 -- Students wait to go home from Clarendon Elementary in north Portland the day after an immigration raid at Fresh Del Monte Produce that impacted the parents of many of their classmates. Some children became stranded when parents or caretakers were arrested by immigration officials.

West Nile Virus Here to Stay

July 25 -- Josh Henman collects mosquito larvae at Delta Park to test for West Nile virus as the Multnomah County Health Department responds to a public-health threat that is only expected to increase over the next few years. The potentially deadly virus is transmitted by mosquito bites.

Insider in Our Backyard

June 27 -- Presidential candidate Barack Obama taps Retired Air Force General Merrill "Tony" McPeak, who lives in Lake Oswego, as an advisor to his campaign.

OSU Stuns Baseball World

June 27 -- Oregon State University players pile onto the field after the Beavers beat North Carolina to repeat as National Champions in the College World Series.

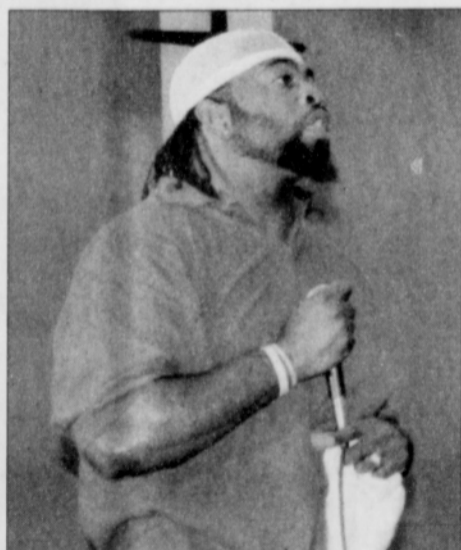

Awareness for a Silent Killer

Sept. 5 -- Marcia Taylor, executive director of Portland Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation, brings awareness to the battle against Sickle Cell anemia by promoting year-round genetic counseling and diagnostic testing. She holds a portrait of her daughter Ramona who died from the disease.

Obama Campaigns in Portland

Sept. 12 -- Presidential candidate Barack Obama stresses big themes with a few veiled jabs at his rivals during a campaign appearance at the Oregon Convention Center.

Holy Hip Hop

Sept. 19 -- Rap voices build a ministry at Maranatha Church in northeast Portland, where a new breed of rap speaks to a relationship with God and spiritual growth on a personal level.

Presents

A Gala New Years Eve Worship Celebration!

"No Time To Wait" In 2008
Let's Praise Him Now!

Monday, December 31, 2007 9:30 PM

Come as you are! Bring Family and Friends!

Please join us at "The Hope" for a "Gala" evening of celebration, with anointed music, praise dancers, men and women's ministries, food, fun and treats, youth activities, and much more. We will feast not only on physical food but on the word of God, as we thank God for 2007 and look towards 2008. Come as you are, bring family and friends. Something for everyone! This is a new year's celebration you won't want to miss. Come one, come all!!
