Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. Timeline

Miss. Neshoba County Sheriff Rainey and his deputy, Cecil Price are implicated in the murders.

- Dr. King and Rev. Ralph Abernathy visit West Berlin at the invitation of Mayor Willy Brandt. Dr. King has an audience with Pope Paul VI at the Vatican.
- Dr. King receives the Nobel Peace Prize in Oslo, Norway.

1965

- Malcolm X, leader of the Organization of Afro-American Unity and former Black Muslim leader, is murdered in New York City.
- A group of marchers led by Southern Christian Leadership Conference's Hosea Williams are beaten when crossing the Edmund Pettus Bridge on their planned route to Montgomery from Selma, Ala. Their attackers were state highway patrolmen. An order by Gov. Wallace had prohibited the march.
- Unitarian minister James Reeb is beaten by four white segregationists in Selma. He dies two days later.
- President Johnson addresses the nation and Congress. He describes the voting-rights bill he will submit to Congress in two days and uses the slogan of the Civil Rights Movement, "We Shall Overcome."
- Sheriff's deputies and police on horseback in Montgomery beat black and white demonstrators. Over 3,000 protest marchers leave Selma for a march to Montgomery protected by federal troops. They are joined along the way by 25,000 marchers. Upon reaching the capitol, they hear an address by Dr. King.
- Mrs. Viola Liuzzo, wife of a Detroit Teamsters Union business agent, is shot and killed while driving a carload of marchers back to Selma.
- The 1965 Voting Rights Act is signed by President Johnson.
- In Watts, the largely black ghetto of Los Angeles, riots leave 35 dead. Twenty-eight are black.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. looks at the glass door of his rented beach cottage in St. Augustine, Fla., that was shot into on June 5, 1964. No one was in the house at the time of the shooting. King was in St. Augustine to meet with other integration leaders.
