

Outside Brown Chapel AME Church in Selma, a helmeted sheriff's posse blockades those who have answered King's call to complete the voting-rights march.

Viola Luizzo of Detroit (right) completes the march, but is bushwhacked that night while driving through Lowndes County.

Beneath the dome of Alabama's capitol, where Gov. George Wallace watches behind drawn blinds, a great host of people completes the march to Montgomery on March 25, 1965.

A riot is the language of the unheard.

Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. at an address given in Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 31, 1963

"Beloved Community"

We honor the life and works of Martin Luther King Jr.

It is our primary goal as a labor union to better the lives of all people working in the building trades through advocacy, civil demonstration, and the long-held belief that workers deserve a "family wage" - fair pay for an honest day's work.

A family wage and the benefits that go with it, not only strengthens families, but also allows our communities to become stronger, more cohesive, and more responsive to their citizens' needs.

Our family wage agenda reflects our commitment to people working in the building trades, as well as to workers everywhere. In this small way, we are doing our part to make Dr. King's concept of the "Beloved Community" a reality.
