

Concert to Explore Life and Death

Spanning three generations

The Portland Columbia Symphony Orchestra presents Generation Gaps, an intriguing concert featuring the music of three generations.

Young composer Amber Gudaitis -- a former member of the Portland Youth Philharmonic orchestra now studying composition at Arizona State University -- will premier her commissioned work "Columbia River Narrative."

Jennifer Choi will make a welcome return to the stage in Beethoven's Violin Concerto, his sublime creation from the height of the Classical era.

Performances are Friday, March 28, at 8 p.m. at the
