Three Dimensional Expertise on View

Tamae Frame's "Insecurity" represents one of the sculptors exhibiting at the Museum of Contemporary Craft through April 27.

The Museum of Contemporary Craft, 724 N.W. Davis, is exhibiting a unique collection of sculptures through April 27.

This juried exhibit features nine diverse works of art from members of the fast growing artists' group Pacific Northwest Sculptors. Artists include JDBump, Tamae Frame, George Heath, Alisa Looney, Lawrence Morrell, Carole Murphy, Sara Swink, Carole Turner, and D B Wells.

Museum of Contemporary Craft is a longtime supporter of local artists and is providing a unique opportunity for the public to view a high-quality selection of three-dimensional artwork. Multimedia works in glass, metal, clay and concrete will be highlighted in the lab as part of the museum's "Community Showcase." The exhibit is open Tuesdays through Sundays, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., and on Thursdays until 8 p.m. Admission is free.

Selected artists will be on hand performing demonstrations of their sculpture-making process on three consecutive Saturdays during the six-week showcase. The public is invited to witness the wonderful craftsmanship of these local talents between 1 and 4 p.m. on April 12, 19 and 26.
