

Running into Walls

"Running into Walls" is a poignant and raucously funny look at two eccentric friends whose daily lives are cast into disorder by a sudden encounter with mortality.

Created in the European tradition of theatrical clowns, the show features characters who are eccentric versions of human beings. Through the smallest mask in the world, the red nose, they are able to look at the tragic, mundane and peculiar aspects of life in a unique and hilarious way.

"Running into Walls" is the latest original production by Portland-based Nomadic Theatre Co. and will play at Theater Theater!, 3430 S.E. Belmont. A preview show is scheduled Thursday, April 10 at 8 p.m. with shows Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through April 27.

Adult tickets are $12, students and seniors are $10, and kids 12 and under are $8. Call 971-219-5781 or visit Nomadictheatre.org for more info.

Heather Pearl and Sarah Liane Foster star in "Running into Walls."
