

Senior Loaves & Fishes Meal Drivers Needed

Loaves & Fishes Centers, The Meals-On-Wheels People is seeking volunteer drivers to ensure homebound seniors receive nutritious meals and a bit of companionship the upcoming Labor Day weekend.

"These volunteers are invaluable because they not only help us feed our frail elderly, but they make sure these seniors see a friendly face every day," said Caroline Henry, who manages Loaves & Fishes Centers' weekend and holiday meal program. "Sometimes the Meals-On-Wheels driver is the only persons these homebound seniors see in a given day. Holiday volunteers also help fill routes left by our regular drivers who vacation for the Labor Day weekend."

Meals-On-Wheels routes are available on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Aug. 30 and 31 and Sept. 1. For more information about how you can help, call Caroline Henry or Bruce Nissen at 503-953-8123.

In Loving Memory Anthony Gaines

Anthony "Tone" Gaines has left his earthly home to join the angels waiting for him in heaven.

He was born Oct. 23, 1964 in Chicago. He was a gifted and talented student at Parkrose High School and went on to attend Southern Oregon University before graduating from Portland State University. He was a ferocious reader and enjoyed traveling to many countries.

Loved by family and friends, he leaves to cherish his memories, his mother Barbara Gaines of Portland; his father Alfred Gaines of Altha, Fla.; godparents, Lyne and Ture Erickson of Vancouver, B.C.; two aunts, Esmay Bascombe of Barbados, West Indies, and Laurie White of Chicago; two uncles, Vernon White of Atlanta and Steve White of Chicago; his favorite cousin Jennetha Lewis of Chicago; several other cousins and other relatives in Barbados; and many friends throughout the Portland area.

Mother, Grandmother Remembered

Inez Chaney

Inez Chaney was born July 3, 1929 in Meridian, Miss., to Mittie Marsh and Clifford Gordon.

Her only sister, Cannie Roberts, preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn her brothers Clifford Gordon of Indiana and Tim Marsh of Oklahoma.

She was a devoted, loving mother of nine children: Sandra Johnson, Willie Jackson, Alice Chaney, Mittie Chaney, Rosie Chaney, Earl Chaney, Clifford Chaney, Michael Chaney, and Tresa Berry, all of Portland. She was also a nurturing grandmother of 27 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

She was a home service worker for many years she also worked as a foster grandparent with Portland Public Schools. She was the provider and leader of her family. She thrived on watching her great-grandchildren grow and learn.

She loved life and lived it to the fullest. Her passion was raising house plants and gardening. She also enjoyed home crafts to be given as a token of her love. Her favorite color was lavender and she really loved a good coconut cake.

DIVERSITY INCLUSION

Diversity
Diversity is valued at Fred Meyer because of the perspectives, ideas, beliefs, and cultures that combine to create an organization greater than the sum of its parts.

Inclusion
Inclusion is the process of leveraging diversity to add measurable value to organizational performance and outcomes. It is about ensuring that everyone has the opportunity to participate. An inclusive work culture is one that welcomes and includes the strengths of Associates' differences and supports involvement, giving everyone equal access to opportunities and information. In an inclusive environment, people feel comfortable and respected, regardless of individual differences.

Diversity and Inclusion go hand-in-hand. A diverse workforce that works together, leveraging Associate differences and experiences in an inclusive manner creates an atmosphere for corporate innovation and growth.
