Jesse L. Martin

Martin Eyes New TV Role

Five months after he turned in his "Law & Order" badge, Jesse L. Martin is returning to NBC with a role in the drama series "The Philanthropist."

After a lengthy courtship by the network, Martin is in negotiations to co-star on the midseason show opposite James Purefoy.

"Philanthropist" centers on Teddy Rist (Purefoy), a renegade billionaire who uses his wealth, connections and power to help people in need around the world. Martin would play Philip Maidstone, Teddy's business partner and lifelong friend.

Martin also co-stars in NBC's upcoming holiday special "Letters to Santa -- A Muppets Christmas."
