

Leaders Inspire through History

"Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power."

- Abraham Lincoln

"I leave you, hoping that the lamp of liberty will burn in your bosoms until there shall no longer be a doubt that all men are created free and equal."

- Abraham Lincoln

"The probability that we may fall in the struggle ought not to deter us from the support of a cause we believe to be just; it shall not deter me."

- Abraham Lincoln

"Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it."

- Dwight Eisenhower

"A leader is a dealer in hope."

- Napoleon Bonaparte

"Keep your fears to yourself, but share your inspiration with others."

- Robert Louis Stevenson

"The only safe ship in a storm is leadership."

- Faye Wattleton

"Delegating work works, provided the one delegating works, too."

- Robert Half

"The best executive is the one who has sense enough to pick good men to do what he wants done, and self-restraint to keep from meddling with them while they do it."

- Theodore Roosevelt

"A leader takes people where they want to go. A great leader takes people where they don't necessarily want to go, but ought to be."

- Rosalynn Carter

"Change will not come if we wait for some other person or some other time. We are the ones we've been waiting for. We are the change that we seek."

- Barack Obama

"If you're walking down the right path and you're willing to keep walking, eventually you'll make progress."

- Barack Obama

"It took a lot of blood, sweat and tears to get to where we are today, but we have just begun. Today we begin in earnest the work of making sure that the world we leave our children is just a little bit better than the one we inhabit today."

- Barack Obama

"The very essence of leadership is that you have to have vision. You can't blow an uncertain trumpet."

- Theodore M. Hesburgh

"The very essence of leadership is that you have to have a vision."

- Theodore Hesburgh

OWN YOUR HOME at a price you can afford

"My house payment is less than I paid in rent!"

- Laneisha, a new homeowner

Say goodbye to rising rents and landlords in 2009!

Portland Community Land Trust, a nonprofit organization serving Portland since 1999, has 2 & 3 BR homes at prices you can afford coming to your neighborhood in 2009.

And no subprime mortgages. No getting in over your head.

Our average home sells for $150,000 with fixed-rate monthly mortgage payments around $900-1150.

We've helped more than 100 families buy their first home in Portland. We can help you, too! But don't wait to get ready. PCLT gives priority to those on our waiting list.

Register for a free orientation in your neighborhood by visiting www.plct.org/classes or calling 503-493-0293x10.

"The hope of a secure and livable world lies with disciplined nonconformists who are dedicated to justice, peace and brotherhood."

-- Martin Luther King Jr.

"I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

- Maya Angelou
