WSU Vancouver Honors King

Washington State University Vancouver invites community members to join students, staff and faculty for the Martin Luther King Day of Service commemorating the 80th anniversary of his birth. The event will be held on the MLK national holiday, Monday, Jan 19, with registration and light refreshments at 9a.m., following by a presentation by Jorge Lizárraga, diversity faculty fellow in the Firstenberg Student Commons. Service projects will include quilting for the needy (on campus); elementary school beautification; landscaping with Habitat for Humanity; sorting canned goods at a food bank; and planting trees in watershed. All campus parking lots will be available for free public use. Transportation to the projects and back will not be provided and carpooling is encouraged. WSU Vancouver is located at 14204 N.E. Salmon Creek Ave., east of the 134th Street exit from either I-5 or I-205.
