Celebration Service

Bobby Joe Washington

Bobby Joe Washington passed away on Oct. 31, 2009. He was born on March 12, 1935 in Texarkana, Ark., to Chester and Victoria Washington.

He received his education from Arkansas State College in Pine Bluff. He served in the U.S. Army and then moved to Portland when he was 25 years old.

He worked for various men's clothing stores and eventually owned several different shops of his own. He formerly worked at the Portland Observer and Skanner newspapers, selling advertising. He was a retired employee of the Portland Airport where he worked as a skycap.

He was also a foster parent for the Headstart program.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his daughter, Kimberly Johnson and her husband, Donald; five grandchildren, Andre, Donald, Sean (currently serving in the Army), Jordan and Kiara; one great granddaughter, Siara; and a brother, Teddy Washington of Vancouver.

A celebration service in his honor will be held Saturday, Nov. 14 at 11 a.m. at Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church, 4009 N. Missouri Ave.

In Loving Memory

Rose Lee Trice

Rose Lee Trice was born March 8, 1930, in Vicksburg, Miss., the daughter of Roger Sanders and Vergie Benard.

The cultivation of this Rose began at Cherry Elementary School and later in Biloxi, Miss., where she was pruned and tamed by Bethel Academy.

Her roots continued to grow when she moved to Muskegon, Mich., and where God sent her a gardener by the name of Jimmy Exel Trice Sr. On Feb. 2, 1953 the gardener and Rose became one. He nurtured his Rose and rose buds bloomed. In about 1957, the couple replanted their roots in Portland, the City of Roses. After Rose and her six buds were planted, two more were added.

Rose's love for God and her children were unmatched.

She took roots in the direction of Greater Faith Baptist Church in 1962 where she held just about every office except pastor. She was the epitome of a flower; she fed anyone, housed anyone and loved everyone.

Her big pots of "gumbo" would feed the masses. She visited hospitals to visit the sick and shut in. A mother to all, she was known as "Mama Rose" or "Granny."

On Oct. 11, 2009, God, with his shears, cut our beautiful Rose so she may be part of his beautiful Heavenly Garden.

She leaves to cherish her memory, Jimmy Exel Trice Sr., Allen (Joyce) Sanders, Lamodia (James) Johnson, Sylvia (Roy) Spencer, Eddie Trice, Jimmy (Carla) Trice Jr., Violet Trice, Margaret Trice; sisters Emily and Bernice Sanders, and brother Richard Sanders; loving first cousin Viola (Julius) Moore; 14 grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren; and foster children, Claudine (Harvey), Denise Peterson, Carol Russel and Michael Ferguson.

Rose is gone but she'll bloom in our hearts forever.

Funeral services were held Oct. 19 at Allen Temple CME Church
