

Portland's King Celebration Turns 25

Monday tribute widely supported

On Monday, Jan. 18, Portland area residents are invited to join hands to celebrate the life and work of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The World Arts Foundation, Inc. is proud to produce its 25th consecutive "Keep Alive the Dream" tribute to this great American. The program, widely supported for its powerful display of diverse talent, takes place at Highland Christian Center, 7600 N.E. Glisan St, beginning at 11 a.m. and ending at 6:30 p.m.

As an added feature, organizers are proud to feature the Dreamers Village, a full range cultural enrichment vendor display, showcasing a variety of local community businesses and organizations.

This program continues to be recognized locally and nationally as one of the finest community-based celebrations in the U.S., humbly attempting to give voice to common citizens and acknowledge the struggle for civil rights and human dignity.

Invited guest will feature a

Liv Warfield

In Diversity...

there is Strength.

We salute Dr. King and his leadership in furthering Civil Rights.

USDA Forest Service Pacific Northwest Region

for information and job opportunities:
call 360-891-5060, Terry Durazo, tdurazo@fs.fed.us
or visit the websites:
www.usajobs.gov
www.fs.fed.us/r6

USDA Forest Service is an equal opportunity provider and employer

Janice Scroggins

variety of talented performances by student choirs from Portland Public Schools, DaNell Daymon and Royalty, Obo Addy, Derrick McDuffy, Chosen Generation, Liv Warfield, the Brown Sisters, Linda Hornbuckle, Janice Scroggins, Reggie Houston, the No! Kidding! Choir, Inspirational Sounds, University of Oregon Gospel Choir, and the Gospel Music Workshop of America. Other performances include the nationally acclaimed Jefferson Dancers and the legendary Beyons.

Linda Hornbuckle

Distinguished speakers will provide inspirational words on the significance of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., his aspirations for equality and achievement, and recognize various civic and social community leaders.

The entire program will be simulcast live on KBOO Radio (90.7 FM); and tape delayed on Portland Community Media (1 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Channel 11), and Portland Public Schools Television Services (Channel .28).

People attending the celebration are asked to bring a $5 donation or four cans of non-perishable food to be given to local food banks.

Sponsors include Portland Public Schools, Portland Association of Teachers, Oregon Education Association, McDonald's of Oregon and Southwest Washington, City of Portland, Providence Health & Services, Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Concordia University, Portland General Electric, African American Chamber of Commerce, Coast Industries, KBOO Radio, and Portland Community Media.