CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Miles Davis - Kind of Blue: 50th Anniversary
ON SALE $13.99 2CD

Jazz trumpeter Miles Davis is renowned as one of the most important musicians of the 20th Century. Davis was at the forefront of several major developments in post-war jazz: his 1957 album 'The Birth Of The Cool' started cool jazz and his 1959 album, 'Kind Of Blue' broke all the rules of the predominant bebop style by introducing modal jazz. In A Silent Way, Bitches Brew and A Tribute To Jack Johnson were instrumental in the development of jazz-fusion.

Taj Mahal - The Essential Taj Mahal
ON SALE $13.99 2CD

One of the most prominent figures in late 20th century blues, singer/multi-instrumentalist Taj Mahal played an enormous role in revitalizing and preserving traditional acoustic blues. Not content to stay within that realm, Mahal soon broadened his approach, taking a musicologist's interest in a multitude of folk and roots music from around the world -- reggae and other Caribbean folk, jazz, gospel, R&B, zydeco, various West African styles, Latin, even Hawaiian.

Earth Wind & Fire - Greatest Hits
ON SALE $8.99 CD

Earth, Wind & Fire were a 70's funk band from Chicago led by drummer and songwriter Maurice White. They released several albums of tight horn-led funk in the early 70s with limited commercial success. Their big breakthrough came in 1975 when 'That's the Way of the World' turned Earth Wind & Fire into superstars.

Robert Johnson - The Complete Recordings
ON SALE $13.99 2CD

One of the greatest blues artists of all time, the legendary Robert Johnson recorded only enough music to fit onto two CDs. After his death at the age of 27 in 1938, Johnson had only 42 tracks in total, if you include alternate takes, under his belt. But those records would go on to influence the world of blues and rock & roll like no other recordings and become an essential influence to Eric Clapton, Bob Dylan, and Keith Richards (to name just three).
