

GET INVOLVED

WE WANT YOUR CREATIVE IDEAS FOR THE FUTURE OF OUR N/NE NEIGHBORHOODS.

The Portland Development Commission has partnered with hundreds of property owners, small and large business owners, non-profit and government agencies and citizens in North/Northeast Portland to support job creation and business expansion, housing projects, development of commercial buildings, and revitalization of neighborhoods with community gathering places, street improvements, parks and open spaces. A new opportunity lies ahead: the N/NE Economic Development Initiative.

N/NE Economic Development Initiative Community Advisory Committee meetings are held Wednesdays, from 6-8 p.m. at Billy Webb Elks Lodge, 6 N Tillamook Street.

Upcoming Wednesday

Meeting Dates:

February 17, 2010

March 3, 2010

Pistils Nursery, left, on North Mississippi Avenue received a Development Opportunity Services Grant to help build their business.

Streetscapes in the Kenton Business District, right, will enhance the area with new lighting, street trees and wider sidewalks.

Area residents, center, participate in the annual MLK clean-up day.
