Hit Show Comes to Portland

NBC's top-rated summer show, "America's Got Talent," will be taping a show in Portland at the Keller Auditorium on Wednesday, March 17 and Thursday, March 18.

Area residents can join host Nick Cannon and judges Sharon Osbourne, Piers Morgan and Howie Mandel in the audience as the country's best amateur performers compete for a chance to win one million dollars.

Free tickets to the taping are currently available online at occatv.com or nbc.com/Americas_Got_Talent.

The search for talent came to Portland two weeks ago for auditions. Producers were looking for talent of all kinds – including musicians, dancers, dance crews, magicians, contortionists, comedians, singers, jugglers, animal acts and everything in between, from all walks of life.

Last season, Oregon had a contestant in the finals, breakdancer Hairo Torres, who is from Grants Pass.
