'Leapin Louie' Lichtenstein of Clowns Without Borders brings laughter to children in Haiti during a tour last year. The non-profit humanity group holds a benefit show on Friday at the Da Vinci Middle School, 2508 N.E. Everett, so that it can return to Haiti to work with children left homeless by the recent earthquake.

Benefit Show for Haiti

The 13th Annual Portland Clowns Without Borders Benefit Show! Friday, March 12 at 7:30 p.m. at Da Vinci Middle School, 2508 N.E. Everett, will support the humanity group's outreach in Haiti.

Founded in 1995, Clowns Without Borders, strives to relieve trauma through laughter in areas of crisis around the world.

Friday's show will feature wild physical theater and new circus community performers, including Leapin' Louie Lichtenstein, Rhys Thomas, Flamebuoyant Productions, the Nomadic Theatre Co, Charlie Brown, Brittany Walsh and her arrows of amazement, and much more.

Tickets for the performance are a sliding scale from $10 to $25, and will be available at the door.

Portland clowns Lichtenstein and Sarah Liane Foster each led trips to Haiti in 2009 before the earthquake and are active organizing the Clowns Without Borders response now.

The organization plans to send at least four groups of clowns to Haiti this year in collaboration with Clowns Without Borders groups from Spain, France, and Canada.

Portland Hosts Comic's Return

Martin Lawrence returns to his stand-up roots with a one-night only appearance at Keller Auditorium on Thursday, March 11 at 8 p.m.

Arguably one of the most popular and successful comedians of our time, Lawrence began his career doing stand-up on the Washington, D.C. circuit parlaying his act into a 1983 appearance on "Star Search." He quickly became a household name and a pop culture phenomenon with the introduction of the FOX TV sitcom "Martin" which ran for five seasons from 1992 to 1997.

Lawrence has also accumulated an impressive list of motion picture credits, some including Spike Lee's Do the Right Thing, House Party 1 and 2, Boomerang, Bad Boys I and II, and Big Momma's House.
