Jamaican Roots Reggae

Jamaican roots reggae artist Lutan Fyah, backed by Quinto Sol, a band from the barrios of East Los Angeles, perform Friday, March 12 starting at 8 pm. at the Mt. Tabor Theater, 4811 S.E. Hawthorne.

Tickets are $15 in advance and $15 at the door.

Much more than a deejay, a singer and more than a chanter too, Fyah also plays guitar, keyboards and the kette drum. He holds strong beliefs in originality with his very own idiosyncratic and unique vocal styling.

He embraced the Rastafarian religion at the age of 16 but his songs are not always strictly Rasta. As a "living man with work to do" he ranges over all subjects and everything and anything can inspire him to write, to play, to chant, to sing and to deejay. Preaching to the converted can prove to be a fairly easy task but to take the same message all around the world is a totally different ball game.
