Arts & ENTERTAINMENT

The Gabriel Alegria Afro Peruvian Sextet will bring the rich legacy of black music of coastal Peru to Mt. Hood Community College for a benefit concert.

Afro Peruvian Jazz Benefit

Area residents are invited to enjoy the unique black music of coastal Peru when the Gabriel Alegria Afro Peruvian Sextet performs at Mt. Hood Community College, Monday, April 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the College Theatre.

The benefit concert will raise funds for the MHCC Jazz Band and the David Douglas High School Band which will also perform.

Tickets are $10 in advance and $12 at the door for adults; $5 in advance and $7 at the door for students. Tickets can be purchased at mhcc.edu/music. A Peruvian buffet will be served in the lobby at 6:30 p.m., along with wine and beer. Buffet prices range from $5 to $10.

Annual Latino Culture Fest

Portland Community College is hosting its fourth annual Semana de la Raza or "Week of the People" festival, Monday, April 26 through Friday, April 30 at the Rock Creek Campus.

The culminating event will be the Cesar Chavez Evening of Excellence Celebration at 6 p.m., Friday, April 30, in Room 114, Building 3.

Following the awards, there will be a performance by the Latino theater group Teatro Milagro, featuring its play, "American Sueno," followed by a discussion, food and Salsa dancing.

Semana de la Raza is free and open to the public. To check out the entire schedule, visit pcc.edu/semana.
