Children's Hospital Rises

Legacy Health is reaching for the sky with the construction of its new Children's Hospital next to Legacy Emanuel Hospital in north Portland.

A central element of the new nine-story building has been put in place with a 165-foot structural supports and elevator shafts for the new health care facility.

"It's exciting to watch the new hospital taking shape," said Carla Harris, the chief administration officer for Legacy Emanuel.

Next up for the project are structural steel beams, decking, floors, and perimeter walls. That work is scheduled to begin next month. The entire project should be complete fall of 2011.
