The film runs through June 13 at the Gerding Theater at the Armory, 128 N.W. 11th Ave. Showtimes are 7:30 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, with a 2 p.m. Sunday matinee and alternating Saturday 2 p.m. and Sunday 7:30 p.m. performances.

The multimedia performance piece is accompanied by actual footage of Mike's trek through India. Mike details every step of the journey, from rehearsals in Los Angeles to meeting with the press in India to finally hearing what a group of Indian intellectuals really thought about the show. Is it good? Is it bad? Or is it so bad that it's good? An epic tale of clashing cultures and gastric distress, Mike's Incredible Indian Adventure is a play about a film about a play, chronicling an artist's wrong turn off the road to success and the strange, surreal and terrifying journey to find his way back.
