

Arts & ENTERTAINMENT

A Sister of Sisters (S.O.S.)

African American Breast Cancer Survivor Support Group

Transition to Wellness ~ Mind & Body

Sponsored by: Portland Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

The Portland Alumnae Chapter Delta Sigma Theta is organizing a breast cancer survivor support group for African American Women. We would like to invite all African American Breast Cancer Survivors to join "A Sister of Sisters" (S.O.S.) - a breast cancer support group focusing on issues relating to African American women surviving breast cancer.

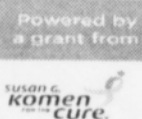

If you're an African American Breast Cancer Survivor - please join us:

Time: April 29th, 6:30PM - 8:30PM

Place: Providence Irvington Village (community room)

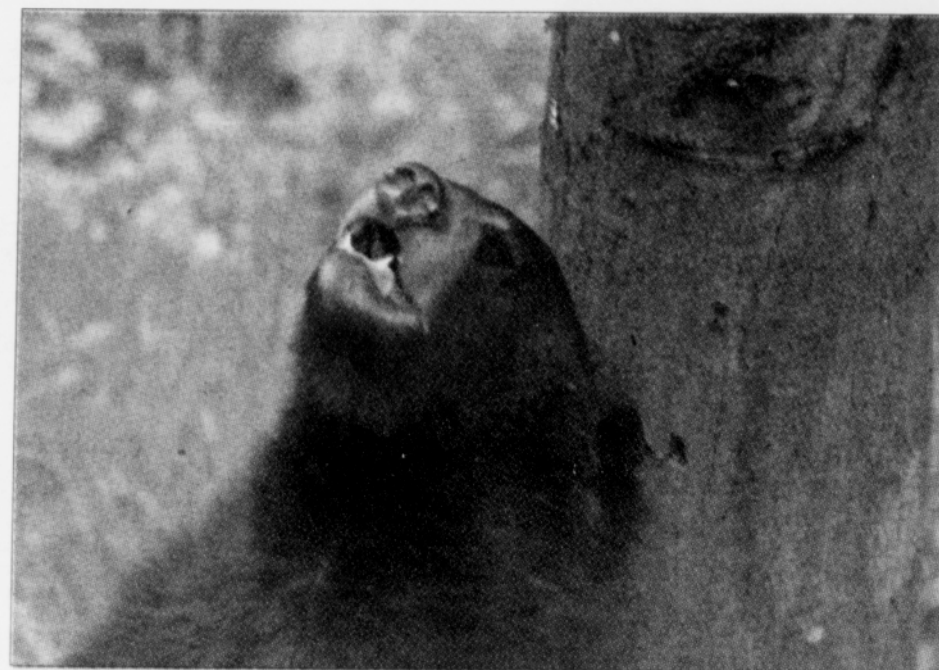

Address: 420 NE Mason St. / Portland, OR.

~ Light refreshments will be served ~

Black Bear Exhibit Opening

Cubby the bear scratches his back against a tree at the Oregon Zoo. Cubby, Dale and Tuff — three new residents of the zoo's Black Bear Ridge exhibit — will be acclimating to their new home over the next couple weeks and should be permanently on exhibit sometime next month.

Fluid and Fiery Romantic

Portland Piano International presents Antonio Poma-Baldi in recital on Sunday, May 16 at 4 p.m. at Newmark Theater. Poma-Baldi, described by the New York Times as a pianist with a fluid technique and a fiery Romantic temperament. The internationally acclaimed musician was born in Italy.

Healthy Kids can help!

Does Your Child have health care?

HEALTHY KIDS PROVIDES:

- ✓ Health care for children 18 and younger.
- ✓ Free or low-cost health care based on income.
- ✓ Coverage, even for children with a medical condition.
- ✓ Medical, dental and vision care; regular checkups; preventive care; prescription drugs; mental health and chemical dependency services; and medical equipment and supplies.

For more information:

African American Health Coalition, Inc.

Call 503-413 1850 M-F 8:30AM-5:00PM

Or visit: 2800 N Vancouver Suite 100 Portland, OR 97227

www.aahc-portland.org

