

Advertise
with diversity
in
The Portland
Observer
Call 503-288-0033
ads@portlandobserver.com

To Place Your Classified
Advertisement
Phone: 503-288-0033
Fax: 503-288-0015

Police Cleared in Shooting

A grand jury Thursday found no criminal wrongdoing by Portland police in the May 12 fatal shooting of Keaton Otis. The 25-year-old African American motorist died in a confrontation after being pulled over for traffic infractions. Police say he grabbed a gun and started shooting.

Oil Spill Tanks BP Stock

BP's stock plummeted Tuesday as the federal government announced criminal and civil investigations into the Gulf of Mexico oil spill. BP engineers, meanwhile, tried to recover from a failed attempt to stop the gusher with an effort that will initially make the leak worse.

Israeli Raid Condemned

Worldwide condemnation was flooding in Tuesday after Israeli naval commandos halted a humanitarian aid flotilla trying to reach the sealed off Palestinian territory of Gaza in international waters Monday, setting off a melee that left nine activists dead and dozens wounded.

Week in The Review

Diff'rent Strokes Star Dies

Gary Coleman, the child star of the smash 1970s TV sitcom "Diff'rent Strokes," whose later career was marred by medical and legal problems, died Friday after suffering a brain hemorrhage. He was 42.

Temptations Legend Loses Battle with Cancer

Ali-Ollie Woodson, who led the legendary Motown quintet The Temptations in the 1980s and '90s and helped restore them to their hit-making glory with songs including "Treat Her Like A Lady," died Sunday after battling cancer, a friend said. He was 58.

City May Tax Pot Grows

Oakland, Calif. soon could become the first U.S. city to sanction and tax commercial pot growing operations. City Council members are preparing legislation that would allow at least three industrial-scale growing operations.

TriMet Hikes Fares 5 Cents

The TriMet Board of Directors last week approved a 5-cent fare increase that will take effect on Sept. 1. The board also approved service cuts to help offset the agency $27 million budget shortfall.

Checks to Help Drug Costs

The Obama administration says $250 checks to help seniors with high prescription drug costs will go out starting this week. The help is provided under President Obama's health care overhaul law.

RIGHT NOW 3/4 OF THE PLANET IS SAYING THANK YOU.

HELPING FUND RESEARCH THAT A LOCAL BUSINESS IS USING SO INDUSTRIES CAN INEXPENSIVELY CLEAN AND REUSE WASTEWATER.

Just outside of Portland, Crystal Clear Technologies is working on something big. Using nanotechnology, they've developed a system that allows large industries like coal-fired power plants to clean and reuse wastewater over and over again. This idea was funded in part by Lottery dollars targeted at research to help grow Oregon business and create a more diverse economy.

 OREGON LOTTERY

It does good things™

www.ItDoesGoodThings.org. Lottery games are based on chance and should be played for entertainment only.