Zoo Concerts Kick-off

Summer series begins Friday

Jewel

The Oregon Zoo summer concert series kicks off Friday, June 25, as three-time Grammy nominee Jewel takes the stage to perform hits from throughout her multiplatinum career. The concert series, sponsored by NW Natural, features more than 15 shows from June through September.

After releasing one of the most successful debut albums of all time — 1995's "Pieces of You" — Jewel has gone on to sell more than 27 million albums worldwide. Her latest release, "Sweet and Wild," came out earlier this month.

Opening the show is heart-on-his-sleeve country crooner Radney Foster.

Nigerian Afrobeat superstar Femi Kuti and his band, The Positive Force, will appear Friday, July 2 in the second concert of the summer season.

The concert series runs through Sept. 1, when Cyndi Lauper, the quintessential girl who wants to have fun, takes the stage.

Among the other popular acts set to play the zoo this summer are reggae superstar Jimmy Cliff (July 23), U.K. jazz wunderkind Jamie Cullum (July 25), rock 'n' roll legend Levon Helm (Aug. 8), new-wave party rockers the B-52s (Aug. 13), heartthrob crooner Chris Isaak (Aug. 14), folk-rock duo the Swell Season (Aug. 20), hometown heroes Pink Martini (Aug. 26 and 27), and Garrison Keillor's long-running live variety show "A Prairie Home Companion" (Aug. 28). Jackson Funeral Costs Reimbursed

(AP) -- The estate of Michael Jackson and entertainment company AEG have agreed to contribute $1.3 million to help cover public costs related to the pop star's memorial service last year at Staples Center in Los Angeles, officials said.

AEG President Timothy J. Leiweke and Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa said Friday in a joint statement that $1 million will be provided to the city's general fund and the rest of the money will go to the Los Angeles Police Foundation for crime-fighting equipment.

"It was important to us that all parties agreed that this was not an obligation but a choice we believed was important to make at a time when thousands of city employees are being reduced," Leiweke said in the release.

Jim Bates, who handles media inquiries for the Jackson estate, was not immediately available for comment.

Critics took aim at the city for spending $3.2 million to support the memorial service last July 7 at AEG's Nokia Theater and Staples Center. Police overtime alone amounted to $2 million after they set up an elaborate security zone around the memorial site.
