Unique Movie Experience

Live voices recreate sound
from classic film

Cartoon voice-actors, sound effects artists and an orchestra will perform a live soundtrack for the 1939 animated film Gulliver's Travels at "Filmusik" at the Hollywood Theater, 3122 N.E. Sandy Blvd.

As the movie plays on the big screen, four cartoon actors give voice to the on-screen characters, sound effects artists create the noises from over a hundred props, and a Filmusik Chamber ensemble performs the music from the film including many musical numbers and several sing-a-longs.

Filmusik: Gulliver's Travels is a new way to experience movies and sound. Incidentally, it's also the only place in town where you can sing along to a bouncing ball with a live orchestra and chorus backing you up!

Oregon has always been particularly gifted when it comes to cartoon voice-over actors. Mel Blanc, a graduate of Lincoln High School was the most widely recognized voice actor in the world, the voice of Bugs Bunny, Daffy Duck, Porky Pig and hundreds of others.

Filmusik: Gulliver's Travels features four contemporary Portland talents: James Dineen, Todd Tolces, Chris Porter and Bill Barry. The voice-overs are directed by Sam A. Mowry, long time radio actor and Filmusik collaborator.

Filmusik: Gulliver's Travels opens Friday, July 16 at 7 p.m.; and repeats with live performances at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, July 21 and Friday, July 23; with a Sunday matinee, July 18 at 2 p.m. Tickets $12 or $10 for students and seniors.

Idol Tour Drops Portland, Others

(AP)-- The summer tour starring "American Idol" finalists is being cut short.

Eight shows on the American Idol Live! Tour have been canceled while others have been changed, according to a revised schedule released Tuesday by tour organizer Live Nation.

The tour featuring the ninth season's top 10 singers was originally planned to end Sept. 16 in Portland, Maine, but is now scheduled to stop on Aug. 31 in Indianapolis.

The canceled stops include Portland; Omaha, Neb.; Kansas City, Mo.; Winnipeg, Manitoba; Toronto; Buffalo, N.Y.; and Cleveland.

Shows have been moved up in cities such as Des Moines, Iowa; Minneapolis; Chicago; and Toledo, Ohio.

The singing contest which has long been TV's top-rated series, faced falling viewership during its ninth season. A total of 24.2 million viewers watched the final duel between Lee DeWyze and Crystal Bowersox, compared to the nearly 29 million viewers who saw Kris Allen win over Adam Lambert last year.
