Beaverton Park Movies Lineup

E.T., Back to the Future and The Blind Side are next three free movies coming to the Flicks by the Mountain outdoor family-friendly movie series at City Park in Beaverton at the corner of Fifth Street and Hall Boulevard.

The screenings will be shown in order over the next three Friday nights at dusk. Early arrivals can enjoy pre-movie entertainment such as local musicians and performers at 8 p.m. followed by the feature presentation.

"Flicks by the Fountain have become a fun tradition for the community to come and enjoy a relaxing evening at City Park while enjoying some free, summer fare," said Mayor Denny Doyle.

Attendees are welcome to bring blankets, food and low-backed chairs, with seat height no higher than 11 inches. You are asked to please leave glass containers, barbecues, alcoholic beverages and pets at home. Smoking is not permitted.

Parking for the event is free and available in the City Park parking lot on the corner of Third Street and Hall Boulevard, and in the Beaverton City Library parking lot on the corner of Tucker Avenue and Fifth Street.
