Soulful Singer Performs Saturday

If he looks like Elvis and sounds like Roy Orbison, chances are it's Chris Isaak. The popular singer will bring his reverb-laden pop back to the Oregon Zoo, Saturday Aug. 14 as part of the zoo's summer concert series.

Isaak has been compared with Elvis and Orbison ever since his 1990 song "Wicked Game" was included in the David Lynch film "Wild at Heart" and became a Top 10 hit.

Isaak's musical style recalls the melancholy sweep of Orbison hits like "Crying" with a stripped-down feel reminiscent of Elvis at his Sun Studio best.

He has continued to build his reputation with albums like "San Francisco Days," "Forever Blue" and "Baja Sessions" — the latter of which included a cover of Orbison's "Only the Lonely."

Tickets can be purchased at the Oregon Zoo for $37.50 each. Tickets can also be purchased (with service charge) at all Ticketmaster ticket centers.

Free Science Days at OMSI

Through a generous grant from Fred Meyer stores, the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry will offer free general admission to the public Thursday, Aug. 12 through Sunday, Aug. 15.

General admission to OMSI includes all five of its main exhibit halls and such featured attractions as Samson: The Colossal T. rex Discovery, Science On a Sphere, and the new exhibit Einstein: The World Through His Eyes.

OMSI's separate ticketed attractions such as the submarine, planetarium, and OMNIMAX Theater will remain at their regular admission prices. OMSI will be extending its operating hours for the event and will be open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. during all four days.

"One of OMSI's core missions is a dedication to making science learning accessible to everyone," said OMSI president Nancy Stueber. "Through this generous grant from the Fred Meyer Fund, OMSI can now provide unprecedented access to thousands of visitors from around the Northwest."
