Folk-Rock Duo Mix it Up

The Folk-rock duo The Swell Season perform at the Oregon Zoo, Friday, Aug. 20, as part of the summer concert series presented by Northwest Natural.

Glen Hansard and Markéta Irglová broke out onto the pop-culture scene after outstanding performances in the 2007 film "Once," —a touching love story about two aspiring musicians. The film's hit single, "Falling Slowly," won the duo an Academy Award for Best Original Song.

"The Swell Season are an unstoppable duo," said Krista Swan, the zoo's event coordinator. "Their music is peaceful and serene, it's as if it were made to be performed under the evening sky on the Oregon Zoo's concert stage."

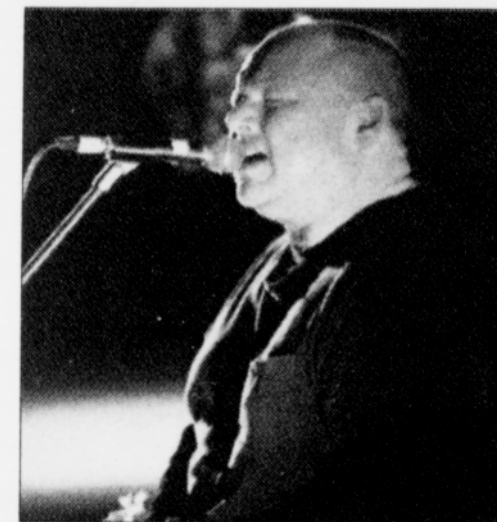

Black Francis, the illustrious

The Folk-rock duo, The Swell Season, performs Friday, Aug. 20 as part of the Oregon Zoo's summer concert series.

Pixies front man and Portland local, opens the show. Also known as Frank Black, the iconic rocker released his newest album, the critically acclaimed and punk-driven "Bluefinger," in 2007.

Tickets for the concert can be purchased at the Oregon Zoo for $24 each. Tickets can also be purchased at all Ticketmaster ticket outlets.

Write Around Release Party

Join the community group Write around Portland for the release of its anthology, Follow Me, Move the World, with a celebration of writing in community.

Writers from the group's summer workshops for low income seniors, adults with mental illness, women in residential addiction treatment and many others will share their work.

The celebration will be held

Friday, Aug. 27 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, 1838 S.W. Jefferson St. at the Goose Hollow TriMet MAX stop. There is also free - but limited - parking.

The reading is free and everyone is welcome. ADA-accessible and free childcare provided.

The new anthologies and Write Around Portland t-shirts will be available for purchase, cash or check.
