Touching Hearts and Souls

Dianna Wade-Coleman

A funeral was held on Oct. 15, 2010 for Dianna Wade-Coleman at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church.

On Oct. 15, 1967 the world was blessed with a special gift named Dianna Jean Wade-Coleman, born to Rebecca Tayvies and Arthur Lee Coleman in Port Chester, New York. This beautiful "diva," with a heart of gold, would go on to touch the hearts and souls of everyone she met.

Diane, as she was called by friends and loved ones, was dedicated to the Lord on Jan. 14, 1968 at Zion Temple. She received her evangelist certification in 2004 from Praise Chapel in Anaheim, Calif. She later joined Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, where she was involved in Cell Ministry. She loved and delighted in the Lord; He reigned in her life.

Diane attended Highland and Chapman Elementary schools and graduated from Jefferson High School in 1985. She received her Associates Degree from Western Business College. She also received her certification as a Drug and Alcohol counselor in 1995.

On April 25, 1988, Diane's pride and joy, Alexandria, was born. She was proud of her beautiful daughter and invested her life into being a wonderful and supportive mother. She was an excellent role-model to her daughter and her many "adopted" children.

Diane began her work career at Danner Boot Factory. She also worked for Volunteers of America Residential Center and Turning Point Residential Treatment Center at Columbia River Corrections Institution.

She began her service with Multnomah County in 1999. She worked as a drug and alcohol specialist for the sheriff's office in the jail intervention program. She became a parole and probation officer in 2000. Her most recent assignment was with the adult services division with the African American program. She enjoyed working with her clients and wanted the best for them all and did all she could to help them succeed.

She was passionate about her work with the local community. She worked with the Institute on Domestic Violence, engaging African Americans in roundtables and conferences. At the workplace she was full of laughter, kindness and always willing to help her fellow co-workers. At the office, she was the "glue" that held things together. She made friendships that became an extended family to her.

Diane's beautiful smile had a wonderful affect on everyone she met. She was well respected and made a positive impact on her community, her workplace, her clients, her family and friends.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter, Alexandria Ioane; mother Rebecca Tayvies; brothers Jerry Wade, Arthur Lee Coleman Jr. Daniel Coleman, Jermaine Tayvies, Michael Tayvies, Travis Gamble, Nate Roberts, Carl Green, Stefan Jones, and Erik Montgomery; sisters Terrie Coleman, Annamae Coleman, Angie Coleman, Maryanne Coleman, and a host of family and friends.

She was an explosion of life, and all who knew and loved her will miss her, but will never forget that beautiful smile, joyous laughter and her caring spirit. Arrangements entrusted to Terry Family Funeral Home.

Remembering Betty Jean Barr

*Forever will I love you
You will always be my baby girl
As I sit with Angels I look down at you and point proudly
See... see her... over there, that's her!*

*I am always along side you...
Sometimes you can feel me
A brush against your dress, a breeze on your face...
That's when I kiss you
You have always kept me in your mind and heart*

*Thank you...
I love you baby girl
Bye...*

Betty was an inspiration and my memories of her continue to be a part of my daily walk. The one thing, I remember most of about her is her smile and her loving attitude as she helped others whenever called upon. For God loves a cheerful giver - 2 Cor 9:7.
