

In Loving Memory

Ella Moore Roberts was born in San Augustine, Texas. She finished high school in San Augustine and was married shortly afterward to Lowrie Roberts. They lived in Texas for about 10 years before Lowrie sought work in Portland at the ship yard.

Ella found employment working at a prominent downtown hotel. She loved dogs.

Ella was a dedicated, loyal member of First AME Zion Methodist Church from 1943 until 1999, when her health began to decline. She sang in the choir, served on the Stewardess Board, was a life member of the Women's Home and Overseas Missionary Society Council, worked in the Sunday School, and was a member of the Fellowship Committee. She counseled many new stewardesses even after her health declined.

Harvest Homes became home for Ella in March 1999. Whenever she was at a family gathering, you would soon hear her say, "I guess it's time for me to go home."

The family thanks Harvest Homes for their care of Ella and for continuing to provide a place for those who need care, love, attention and a place to call home when the time arrives in their lives.

Ella will remain in the memory of her family: sister, Georgia Newton-Smith (Garland), Portland; nieces: Margaret LaJewel Lewis - Portland; Dawn Marie Newton Smith (Marichal) of Atlanta, GA; Angela Barajas (Frankie) Webster, TX; nephews: Delbert C. Newton of Portland; Jay Patrick Moore (Lynn), Cincinnati, OH; sister-in-law, Cleo Moore, San Diego, CA; several great, great-great nieces and nephews, and a number of other relatives and friends.

We give God Glory for 94 years of life.

Services entrusted to Neal's Compassionate Heart Funeral Home.
