New Voices for Chamber

The -Hispanic Metropolitan Chamber recently elected three new members to its board of directors: Gustavo Cruz, Mark Davalos and Elaina Medina.

"We are pleased to add three top Latino professionals to our board who bring legal, education and media expertise to our organization. We look forward to their insights and their active support of our mission to help support the economic advancement of Latinos through business support, higher education support and leadership development," said Jerry Petty, the chamber's chair.

Cruz is lawyer for U.S. Bank; Davalos is a deputy superintendent for Portland Public Schools; and Medina is a public information officer for Portland General Electric.

The Hispanic Metropolitan Chamber was established in 1994 and is now the largest Hispanic chamber in the Northwest and one of the 6th largest chambers of any type in Oregon.

Latino College Fair Coming

For the third year, Milwaukie High will host a bilingual college fair for Latino families, providing information about how to prepare for college, and how to apply for college admission and scholarships.

Students from any high school are encouraged to attend with their parents. Information will be available in Spanish and in English.

The free, drop-in event will take place at Milwaukie High School on Monday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m., with scholarship information presented at 7:40 p.m. The school is located at 11300 S.E. 23rd Ave. in Milwaukie. For more information, call Roberto Aguilar at 503-353-5840, extension 38311.
