Michael Jackson Immortal Tour

The estate of Michael Jackson and Cirque du Soleil recently announced the launch of the "Michael Jackson the Immortal" world tour, with a stop in Portland coming next fall on Nov. 18, 2011.

Written and directed by Jamie King, a leading concert director in pop music, the electrifying production will combine Jackson's music and choreography with Cirque du Soleil creativity to give fans worldwide a unique view into the spirit, passion and heart of the artistic genius who forever transformed global pop culture.

Aimed at lifelong fans as well as those experiencing Michael's creative genius for the first time, the show captures the essence, soul and inspiration of the King of Pop, celebrating a legacy that continues to transcend generations.

Tickets are on sale at the Rose Quarter box office and TicketsWest outlets.

'Michael' Album Completed

(AP)--Lenny Kravitz, Akon and 50 Cent will be featured on the upcoming posthumous album from Michael Jackson.

Epic Records and Jackson's estate released more details about the record simply called "MICHAEL" on Friday. The song "Hold My Hand" with Akon is the first single and debuted on Jackson's website on Monday.

Akon says the song was leaked two years ago before Jackson's death but it wasn't complete. Akon says now it's finished and he's proud to have worked with one of his idols.

"MICHAEL" will feature 10 songs and is due out Dec. 14. Some were recent recordings.

The song "Breaking News" debuted on Jackson's site this week. Some of his nephews say it's not Jackson's voice but a former producer and manager insist that it is.

Michael Jackson the Immortal world tour is scheduled to come to the Rose Garden next year.
