

Law School Hosts Activist

Lewis & Clark Law School is honored to host William T. Coleman, one of the nation's most prominent civil rights activists, as its 2011 Martin Luther King Jr. speaker.

Among his many accomplishments, Coleman was a key legal strategist for the plaintiffs in Brown v. Board of Education and the second African American to serve in the Cabinet.

An adviser to six U.S. Presidents, Coleman recently published an autobiography titled, "Counsel for the Situation: Shaping the Law to Realize America's Promise."

Members of the community are invited to attend the free event on Tuesday, Jan. 18 at 12 p.m. in the Legal Research Center on the Lewis & Clark Law School campus, 10015 S.W. Terwilliger Blvd.
