Vaccinations for School Due

Multnomah County is gearing up to help students become immunized in advance of the Feb 16 deadline, when local schools will begin denying admission to non-immunized students.

The county health department will hold a series of immunization clinics for children who are uninsured or underinsured throughout the month to bring them up to date on their vaccinations and enable them to stay in school. Families with health insurance are encouraged to see their regular medical provider.

“Immunizations in school-aged children help to ensure the health of our entire community, now and in the future,” said Lillian Shirley, director of the Multnomah County Health Department. “In addition to protecting the community from vaccine-preventable diseases, like Whooping Cough and Hepatitis A, immunizations ensure children will not miss school days, contributing to consistent school attendance, a key predictor of life-long health and chronic disease prevention.”

In Loving Memory

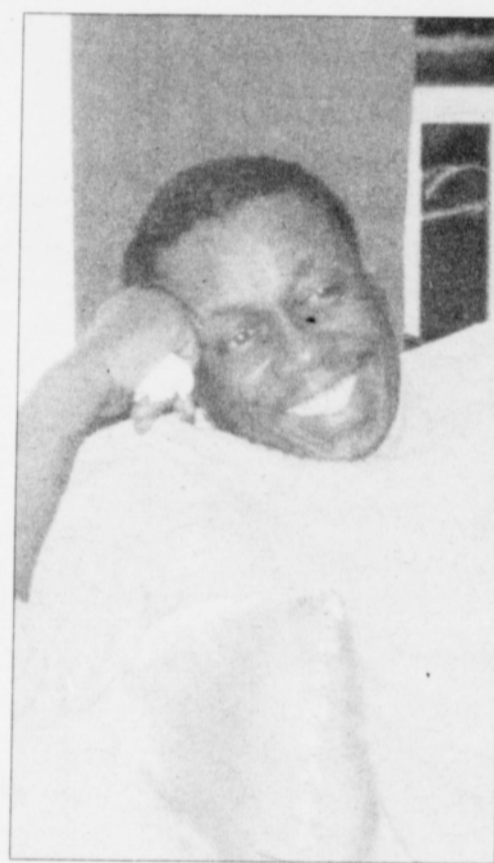

David Earl Johnson

David Earl Johnson was born on March 30, 1959 in Wortham, Texas. He was raised in Texas and attended school in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. After he completed his education he spent a short time living in San Francisco, and the Seattle area, before making his home in Portland.

David enjoyed having a good time. He was the life of the party and would light up any room with his infectious laugh and big smile. He loved to eat good food and listen to music. David was a lover of beautiful women (and some not so beautiful!) Most of his friends knew him as Davie Dave or Diamond Dave, but us country folk just called him David Earl!!

He leaves in mourning his wife of 13 years, Sondra Johnson, mother and step-father Gloria and Earl Preston, father Bo Johnson of Dallas, Texas, sister Angela Willis (Darlene Young), son Demetrius Hamilton of California, daughter Alisha Johnson and step-children Dionsai Riley and Lorie Ruttledge.

He also leaves behind his step-sister Deirdre (DeDe) Preston-Anderson (Antonio Anderson) of Riverview, Calif.; step-brothers

Charles (Chuckie) and Darren Earl Preston; his dearly beloved grandsons Jordan Johnson and Jermaine Smith II; five aunts Pauline Pendgraft, Rita Johnson, Mary Brown-Watson, Virginia Banks, and Patricia Brown-Hopkins; his uncle Larry Gardner; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Everett Abrams and Lovora Abrams; step-brother Deon Preston; and a special close uncle Phillip Abrams.
