Roosevelt Theatre Rebound

The Roosevelt High School community in north Portland is sending their praise to students of the school for winning a championship in theater.

In just 3 1/2 years, Roosevelt has gone from having no theatre program at all for at least a decade to having one of the best programs in the state. Out of all Oregon high school theatre productions this school year, Roosevelt's production of The Yellow Boat was selected to be one of only three shows to win top honors.

The students will showcase their production on the Main Stage of the Elsinore Theatre in Salem during the State Conference, March 31-April 2 in front of nearly 1,000 fellow Thespians.

"Congratulations to the cast and crew who made it happen!" said Joe Strom Lane, RHS Theatre Arts teacher.

SEI hosts Sounds of Soul Choir

Self Enhancement, Inc. will host their annual community Gospel Brunch featuring the SEI Sounds of Soul Choir on Sunday, Feb. 20 at the Center for Self Enhancement, 3920 N. Kerby Ave.

As part of the Portland Jazz Festival, this popular concert event returns for the third year with soul-stirring gospel and mouth-watering Southern cuisine. Doors open at 1:30pm with performances slated to start at 2:30pm.

Tickets for the Gospel Brunch are $30, including a delicious brunch catered by Donna Harris, or $10 for the concert only. Tickets can be purchased through SEI by calling 503-249-1721 extension 244 or by visiting the SEI website at SelfEnhancement.org.
