Robber Targets Local ATM

Portland Police is asking for the public's help in solving three recent armed robberies at the Wells Fargo ATM on Northeast 42nd Avenue and Going Street.

On Feb. 3, Feb. 6, and Feb. 9, an armed suspect demanded money from people using the automated teller machine. All three robberies occurred between 6:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. In each case, the suspect approached the victim from behind and displayed a handgun after the victims have started to use the ATM.

The suspect is described as a white male in his early 20s, about 5 foot 8 to 6 feet tall, with a thin build.

Wells Fargo is offering a reward of up to $3,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of this robbery suspect.

Anyone with information is urged to call police at 503-823-4357.

Police released this security camera photograph of a man wanted in connection with three armed robberies of the Wells Fargo ATM on Northeast 42nd Avenue and Going Street.

Middle East Events in Focus

An acclaimed author and scholar of religions will visit the Sylvania Campus of Portland Community College and share his thoughts on politics, faith, culture, and the recent demonstrations and political turmoil across the Middle East.

Reza Aslan, author of the international best-seller "No god but God: The Origins, Evolution, and Future of Islam" is anticipated to bring a varied audience and a lively discussion for his talk which will be held Thursday, March 3 at 3 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Lobby. The event is free and open to the public.

He will touch on a variety of intersecting aspects of life in the Middle East, including the meaning of Islam's "reformation"; the commonalities and differences among monotheistic religions; the root causes of terrorism and fundamentalism; and the American media coverage of Islam, Muslims and Arabs.

Driving 140 mph for YouTube

A man who filmed the speedometer of his car while driving more than 140 miles per hour so he could post it on YouTube, ended up in jail and the video confiscated, police said.

Stanislav Vadimovich Bakanov was pulled over by police on I-5 near Salem on Feb. 12 after he was clocked driving his black 2005 BMW at 118 mph.

He told police he was filming his speedometer, and his arrest, to post on Youtube. The video later revealed that Bakanov had attained speeds in excess of 140 mph.

He was arrested and charged with reckless driving and speeding. The video was confiscated and will be used as evidence against him.

Workshop on Tax Issues, Rights

The Center for Intercultural Organizing, 700 N. Killingsworth St., will be hosting a free "Know Your Rights and Responsibilities" workshop on tax issues on Saturday, Feb. 26 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Jennifer Woodhouse, an attorney with Legal Aid Services of Or-gon, will lead the discussion on topics that include who has to file tax returns, how to file, how to choose a good tax preparer, how to avoid tax scams, basics about dependents and tax credits, and how to make sure you have the right amount withheld from your paycheck.
