

Seminar on Black History Seldom Taught

The Israelite Church of God In Jesus Christ will be hosting a Black History Month seminar on black history subjects seldom touched on or taught in the scholastic system.

For example, was the Byzantine Empire ruled by black people and why is it referred to as the Dark Ages? Was Shakespeare actually black? What about Mozart, was he black? Noah? Moses? King Solomon? King James? Jesus Christ?

The seminar will take place on Saturday, Feb. 26 at 4 p.m. at the Gresham Library, 385 N.W. Miller Ave.

Delta Mentors Empower Males

The Portland alumnae chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has established a partnership with a team of local African-American men to offer a mentorship program to support African-American male youth, grades 6-12.

The goal is to provide experiences that enhance a student's academic, social and intellectual development. Priorities include access to math, science, leadership, and technology experiences that improve self-esteem, self-motivation, and developing life skills.

Interested students, parents and guardians are encouraged to attend an informational meeting on Saturday, Feb. 26 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Portland Community College Public Services Education Building, 909 N. Killingsworth St..
