Let's Get Curious, George

Children's exhibit opens eyes

Curious George: Let's Get Curious! introduces children to the world of that unforgettably nosey monkey Curious George, leading visitors on a fun, interactive math, science and engineering-based adventure while it emphasizes the central role that parents and caregivers play in a child's life.

The exhibit encourages children's natural curiosity as they explore early science, math and engineering through hands-on play.

George lives to find new things to discover, touch, spill and chew. Learn like George - through direct experiences and problem solving.

Curious George: Let's Get Curious! continues through June 5 at Portland Children's Museum, 4015 S.W. Canyon Rd., next to the Oregon Zoo.

Curious George has hugs and high-fives for kids at the Portland Children's Museum.

City of Portland and All Classical 89.9FM.

"Musicians devote their lives to the positive effect music has on people," said Tom Cirillo, executive director of Portland Baroque Orchestra and spokesperson of Music for All. "As we see more of our neighbors depressed by these tough economic times, the classical music community wants to reach those individuals who need inspiration most."

SNAP enrollees can buy tickets for $5 each to eligible events by showing their Oregon Trail Card at the time of purchase and paying with personal funds. SNAP benefits cannot be used to purchase tickets or other non-food items.

Classical music organizations participating in Music for All include: Oregon Symphony, Portland Opera, Oregon Ballet Theater, Chamber Music Northwest, Portland Youth Philharmonic, Portland Baroque Orchestra, Friends of Chamber Music, Portland Chamber Orchestra, Portland Piano International, Portland Symphonic Choir, Cappella Romana and Portland Vocal Consort.

ing the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP) and Oregon Trail Card, formerly the Food Stamp Program.

The goal is to helping to make life-enriching arts events more accessible and affordable for people struggling through hard times. The discounted tickets are made possible with the support of the group GoClassical PDX, the Regional Arts & Culture Council, Work for Art, the
