Grammy Award-winning female a cappella group Sweet Honey in the Rock performs its own special blend of soulful harmonies in the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall, Wednesday, April 6, at 7:30 p.m.

'Sweet Honey' Harmonies

The six-member group Sweet Honey in the Rock will bring its complex sounds of blues, spirituals, gospel hymns, jazz, rap and reggae to Portland for a Wednesday, April 6 concert at 7:30 p.m. in the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall.

Accompanied by hand-held instruments, such as the African percussive shakere, rhythm sticks and egg shakers, their expressive vocal talents spread messages with renewed hope, love, peace and social justice to audiences worldwide.

Referred to as "a national treasure" by First Lady Michelle Obama, Sweet Honey in the Rock was invited to participate in the first concert of Barack's Obama's presidency in the White House.
