

Inspections Bring Value, Comfort

Whether you are thinking of buying a new home or selling yours, home inspections will take the guesswork out of this important transaction. You'll have peace of mind, knowing that an experienced professional home inspector has examined every component of your home, and is looking out for your interests. Ken Meyer of Portico Home Inspection, a locally owned and operated company, takes pride in performing home inspection reports that are thorough, detailed, and customized.

He said the information he provides is based on an objective assessment of the home's condition. The report can also serve you in the future by identifying maintenance tasks to ensure the continuing value and comfort of your home. "Customer service is a high priority for me. I always do the best job I can for each and every client, and I am always available to answer your questions," he said. In addition to his professional experience doing home inspections and remodeling, Meyer is a member of the American Society of Home Inspectors, and a board member of the Oregon Association of Home Inspectors. For information, call Ken Meyer 503-997-4120 or visit his website porticohomeinspection.com.
