Harlem All-Stars on Tour

The Clown Prince of basketball, the archbishop of comedy, the most famous Harlem Globetrotter of all time—Meadowlark Lemon and his Harlem All-Stars -- will be on tour in Portland, Friday, April 8 through Sunday, April 10.

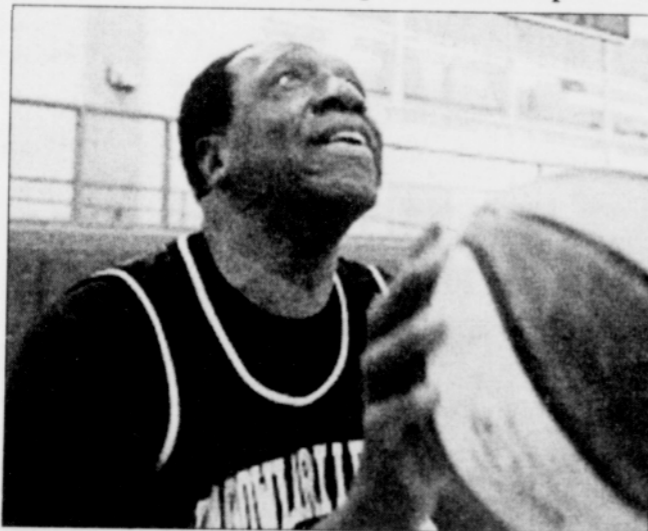

Each game will be in support of various organizations including Portland Parks and Recreation, Multnomah University, Five Oaks Middle School of Beaverton, and Showtime Athletics—a non-profit organization that serves kids in north and northeast Portland.

For everyone who grew up watching Meadowlark Lemon, the following events are a chance to see him up close and personal:

Friday, April 8, Multnomah University at 7 p.m.; Saturday, April 9, Five Oaks Middle School in Beaverton at 2:30 p.m. and 5 p.m.; and the grand finale, Sunday, April 10 at the Stott Center, Portland State University, 2 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

Tickets are on sale at Beach Elementary, 1710 N. Humboldt St.; Acton Fast Photo, 9889 S.W. Barbur Blvd.; and at the door of each event.

For more ticket information, contact Jeannette Jamison, Three Guys and a Ball event director at jj@3guysandaball.com or 503-757-6597.

Peninsula Pancake Breakfast Benefit

The local community is invited to enjoy a short stack for a tall cause, a pancake breakfast benefiting Peninsula Little League.

The all-you-can-eat fundraiser with pancakes, sausage, juice and coffee for only $5 per person takes place on Saturday, April 9 from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. at Applebee's Neighborhood Grill at Lloyd Center, 1439 N.E. Halsey Ave.

Peninsula Little League is a youth sports program serving the youth of inner north and northeast Portland ages 5 to 14.

The league has an average of 200 children and 19 teams.

The funds raised will be used to support new equipment purchases, uniforms, and field maintenance.
