Meet the Ugliest Duckling

Tears of Joy Puppet Theatre presents its newest world premiere puppet production: The Ugliest Duckling.

This colorful adaptation of Hans Christian Anderson's The Ugly Duckling, continues performs at Portland Center for the Performing Arts' Dolores Winningstad Theatre, downtown, with shows this Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and April 17.

The Ugliest Duckling, adds a new twist to the old tale. Imagine mother duck's surprise when a platypus hatches from one of her eggs! Frustrated by his differences, and tired of not fitting in, Yuckay the platypus sets off on a journey of discovery.

Yuckay learns self-confidence as he uses his talents to help his family when he bravely faces Kurreah the Crocodile. Along the way, Yuckay meets similarly unique creatures, Kookaburra and Pigglibillah the Spiny Anteater.

Tickets are $15 children and $18 adults: Call 503-248-0557 or visit tojt.org.
