Poet and troubadour Laura Reboloso will perform during a Cinco de Mayo celebration on Wednesday, May 4 at the Ethos Interstate Firehouse Cultural Center, 5340 N. Interstate Ave.

Cinco de Mayo at Ethos Firehouse

Ethos will celebrate Cinco de Mayo with a special performance by musician Laura Reboloso on Wednesday, May 4 at 7:30 p.m.

The concert will take place at Ethos' newest location, Ethos at the Interstate Firehouse Cultural Center, located at 5340 N Interstate Ave.

The concert will also feature Martha Gonzalez, a powerhouse front woman for the East L.A.-based chicano rock band, Quetzal, as well as pianist Alex Chadsey and bassist Juan Perez.

Reboloso is a poet and troubadour rooted in the 400 year old son jarocho tradition from Veracruz, Mexico. She is a founding member of the internationally acclaimed band Son de Madera and currently fronts her own group featuring musicians from Seattle and Los Angeles. Collectively represented within the group are a wealth of musical influences from rock to jazz to salsa to hip hop and, of course, son jarocho.

Her expressiveness and charisma as a performer, combined with carefully-crafted songwriting and a healthy dose of improvisation, make for an unforgettable performance experience.

Tickets are $15, and $10 for students and seniors. Visit ethos.org or call 503-764-IFCC.
