Gospel Night of Healing

Over a month has passed since 14-year-old Yashanee Vaughn was reported missing and believed murdered on March 19; and efforts continue throughout the community to find the girl's body and understand the truth behind her disappearance.

In honor of her life, Vaughn's family and friends will hold a Gospel celebration as a way to bring the community together for a night of healing and performance.

Rev. J.W. Friday will be the host of the event, which will be held at the Maranatha Church of God in Northeast Portland on Friday, May 6 and will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Fashion Show Helps Homeless

People throughout the community are coming together for fashion, food and music to raise funds for a transitional housing program for the homeless.

The festivities, with pianist Danny Osborne and saxophonist Charles Smith, will be held at Concordia University, Hagen Campus Center, at 2811 N.E. Holman St., beginning at 6 p.m. on Saturday, May 7. Tickets are $15.

Sponsored by Grace Covenant Fellowship Church, the proceeds will support the Ministry House, a program that helps homeless people rebuild their lives.
