

The

Idol Auditions

Thousands show up at the Rose Garden to compete

See story, page 3

Can't Stop the Beat!

Broadway Rose presents 'Hairspray'

See story, page 12

Portland Observer 41

'City of Roses'

Read back issues of the Portland Observer at www.portlandobserver.com

Volume XXXXI, Number 27

Wednesday • July 6, 2011

Established in 1970

Committed to Cultural Diversity

years of community service

PHOTO BY MINDY COOPER/THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

Herman Bryant, the executive Director of Miracles Club of northeast Portland, joins the last team of painters and construction workers making the final touches to the Miracle Club's new 40-unit affordable housing and recovery facility on Northeast Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard.

A Home for Miracles Recovery group celebrates move to new center

BY MINDY COOPER
THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

The Miracles Club, a local African-American success story, which has helped thousands of individuals attain freedom from alcohol and drug use, is ready to celebrate the Grand Opening of their 40-unit affordable housing and sustainable facility, which is new, huge and completely their own.

Although the need for the Miracles Club never diminished over the years, the organization needed to find a permanent center to match the positive work they do daily for the community.

But after nearly two decades of fiscal challenges, threats of conditional use permits and three relocations

continued ▼ on page 4

'Yung Mil' Follows Dreams to New York

PHOTO BY ERIK FREELAND

Parkrose High School graduate Ezekial Jones, also known as 'Yung Mil,' gets the opportunity of a lifetime, meeting with Def Jam music mogul Russell Simmons in his New York City office.

see story inside ▼ on page 5