CRIME STOPPERS

(503) 823-HELP 111 S.W. 2nd Avenue, Portland, Oregon

Burglary Chain at Nursing Homes

The Portland Police Bureau is currently investigating a series of burglaries at retirement homes in southeast Portland where credit cards are being stolen and used almost immediately.

The police began to notice a pattern after three different burglary incidents occurred in less than one month. The first burglary was located at a multi-unit retirement home at Southeast Division Street on May 29, followed by a burglary at a residence on the block of Southeast Market Street on June 13, and then a third incident at another multi-unit retirement home in Southeast at Clay on June 16.

The suspects appear to be a white or Hispanic male and a white female.

Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $1,000 for information, reported to Crime Stoppers, that leads to an arrest in this case.

Anyone with information about these suspects or burglaries is encouraged to call Detective Pandora Parks at 503-823-4816, or email pandra.parks@portlandoregon.gov.

Prostitution Sting Leads to Arrests

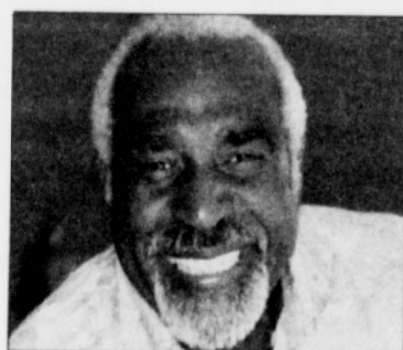

The Salem Police Department arrested five suspects in a prostitution sting conducted on the evening of June 29, when Street Crimes Detectives utilized undercover male and female officers to contact both prostitutes and johns during a five-hour operation.

Contact was made between the officers and the suspects through the internet, and the suspects were later located and taken into custody.

The Salem Police Department said prostitution and other crime associated with prostitution can negatively affect the livability of a community and exploits a vulnerable part of our society.

Prostitution, they said, is also frequently linked to human trafficking, which is becoming more frequent throughout our communities. Women, juveniles and undocumented individuals are being victimized by human traffickers for forced labor as well as for sexual exploitation.

Anyone who has information about human trafficking is urged to contact your local law enforcement agency.
