Portland's Electric Opera Company brings alternative classical music to the stage.

Sympathy for the Devil

Tired of the elitist and inaccessible nature of the classical music world? Try alternative classical music. It may sound like an oxymoron, but it may just be the side of classical music you've never dreamed of, yet always wanted to hear.

On Friday, Aug. 19 at 8 p.m. at the The Alberta Rose Theater, 3000 N.E. Alberta St., the Electric Opera Company and Classical Revolution PDX will bring their trademark style of 18th century masterworks.

The 15 piece electric guitar opera replaces typical classical instruments with an army of electric guitars, keyboards, and drums, while Classical Revolution redefines classical music with style and comfort.

The theme, "Sympathy for the Devil," involves a heavy dose of "Diablo in musica," including the Danse Macabre, selections from Gounod's Faust, Chopin, The Rolling Stones, The Beatles and plenty more surprises.

Bring your beer drinking fists and wear whatever you want, its classical music for the 21st century!

Tickets: $8 at the door or purchased online at albertarose theatre.com.

Movies at Beaverton Park

Beaverton City Park will be transformed into an outdoor movie theater on Friday, Aug. 12 and again Friday, Aug. 19 offering free activities and fun for the entire community to enjoy.

"Flicks by the Fountain has become a popular summer event for all ages," said Mayor Denny Doyle. "Events like these bring our community closer together and provide free local family entertainment for Beaverton residents."

Pre-movie entertainment begins at 7 p.m. and will include kids' crafts hosted by Radio Disney. The flicks begin at dusk. The featured films are Tangled on Aug. 12 and Secretariat on Aug. 19. Short films created and produced by students from Sunset High School and Arts & Communications Magnet Academy will be shown before each movie.

Movie-goers are welcome to bring their own food and drink, if desired. Low-back chairs and comfy blankets are recommended.

Parking is available next to Beaverton City Library and in the parking lot where the Beaverton Farmers Market is held. Restroom facilities are located in the park.

Summer Block Party at Dishman

What better way to spend a summer afternoon than at a neighborhood block party? On Saturday, Aug. 13 from noon to 4 p.m., the Matt Dishman Community Center will host a party in celebration of summer.

You're invited to bring your friends, family, and neighbors to enjoy a climbing wall, crafts, open play swim, an inflatable slide, and food. Matt Dishman Community Center is located on 77 N.E. Knott.

Musician's Stolen Trumpet Found

When a thief ran away with the custom-made trumpet of Portland's most legendary musician, Thara Memory, it was a major concern because it was the only trumpet he could play following a series of finger amputations. It was his prized horn.

Luckily, Memory later got a call from a man who said he found the trumpet along Highway 30 in Northwest Portland.

Memory had been moving into a new condo in the Pear District when a thief smashed in his car window and stole the custom-made trumpet.

"There is only one of these horns and it's made only for me," he said.
