Love Jam with R&B Icons

The Northwest Love Jam will make its debut appearance in Portland for one night only Saturday, Aug. 27 at Memorial Coliseum.

An all-star cast of groundbreaking R&B legends, as well as a handful of up-and-coming artists will share a stage with a lineup of performers that includes Ginuwine, Dru Hill, Faith Evans, Jon B and former American Idol top 10 finalist Andrew Garcia.

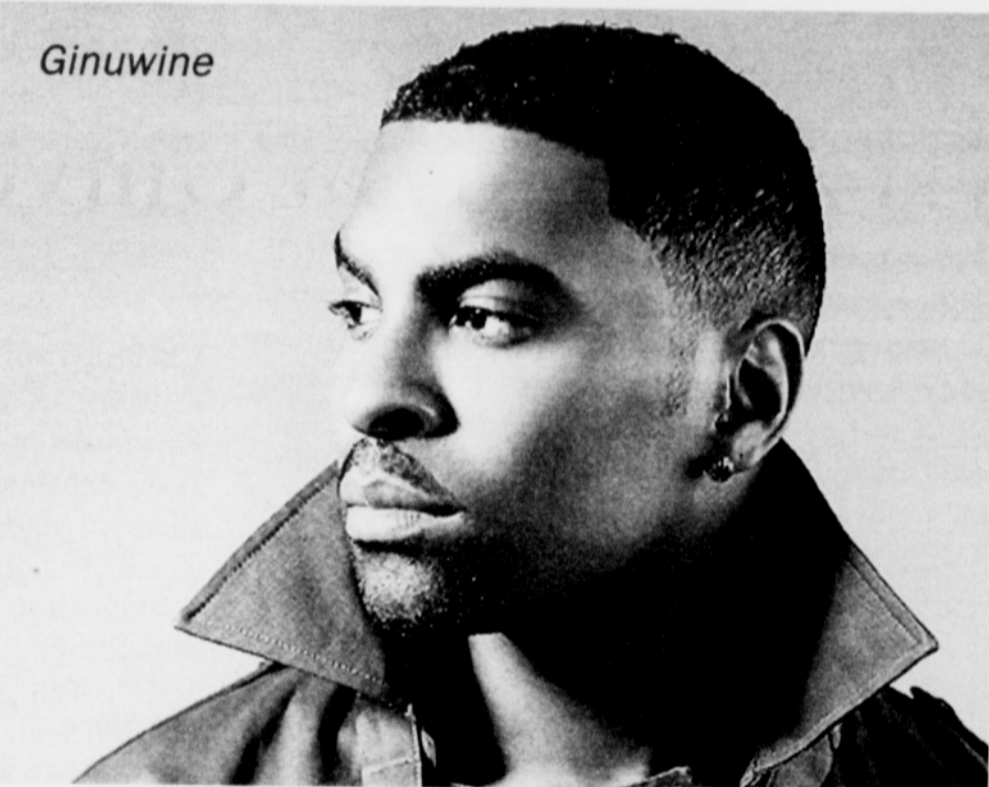

Multi-platinum recording artist Ginuwine has established himself as one of R&B's top singers, songwriters, and charismatic performers since the mid-1990s. Dru Hill has been one of music's most prominent singing groups. Faith Evans' career and musical influence has spanned over a decade including multiple platinum and gold-certified albums.

Performer, writer, producer, and accomplished musician Jon B's talents cover all facets of the music industry and have propelled him to a successful, long-lasting career. Andrew Garcia is one of the most talented and multi-dimensional finalists to ever come through American Idol.

Tickets for the 7 p.m. performance are available through Ticketmaster outlets.

Video Gong Show Sunday

On Sunday, Aug. 29, Ian Karmel will host the Video Gong Show at the Hollywood Theater with live music by the Twins.

At the Video Gong Show the audience rules the screen. Participants offer their favorite video clips to be judged and jeered by their peers. Clips that fail to wow the crowd risk being "gonged." The piece that stands up to crowd scrutiny the longest will be crowned Gong Champion and win prizes courtesy of Pambiche and Por Qué No.

Arrive at 6:30 p.m. to submit your videos on a first come, first served basis. Anything goes except porn; the more ridiculous the better. The event starts at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $5 and available for purchase online at hollywoodtheatre.org or at the Hollywood Theatre box office.
