

Alberta Street's Paper Lanterns

Lâm Quâng is one half of the husband and wife team that creates handmade paper lanterns for the couple's HiiH Gallery on Northeast Alberta Street. His last name was misspelled due to a problem with a character font in the story about his artful creations in our Aug. 17 issue. We regret the error.

Rebels Storm Tripoli

Libyan rebels stormed Muammar Gaddafi's main military compound in Tripoli Tuesday, after fierce fighting with forces loyal to his regime. Although expected to be alive and well, Gaddafi's whereabouts remained unknown.

Winehouse Toxicology

Toxicology results confirmed that there were no illegal substances found in singer and songwriter Amy Winehouse's body at the time of her death, said her family on Tuesday. Although alcohol was present, it cannot be determined as yet if it played a role in her death.

Week in The Review

East Coast Earthquake

One of the strongest earthquakes ever recorded on the East Coast shook buildings from South Carolina to New England on Tuesday and forced the evacuations of parts of the U.S. Capitol, White House and Pentagon. The 5.9 magnitude earthquake was centered about 35 miles northwest of Richmond, Va.

Motown Legend Dies

Nick Ashford, one-half of the legendary Motown songwriting duo Ashford & Simpson that penned elegant, soulful classics for the likes of Diana Ross and Marvin Gaye and funk hits for Chaka Khan and others, died Monday at age 70. He had been suffering from throat cancer.

Former Blazer Disturbance

A man claimed he was assaulted after trying to sell marijuana to former Portland Trail Blazer Zach Randolph at his home in West Linn on Sunday, after a disagreement over price emerged and led James Beasley, 26, to be beaten with pool sticks. According to police, Randolph was not involved in the fight, but this would be the second violent incident involving his friends this year.

Teen Grabs Officer's Gun

Portland police arrested a 17-year-old on Saturday after he became "combative" and grabbed an officer's gun when police wanted to search his car during a traffic stop at Northeast Martin Luther King Boulevard and Lombard. The young man was booked into juvenile detention with seven different charges.

Make a night of it.

SPirit MOUNTAIN
CASINO

The Northwest's Premier Entertainment Destination

George Benson ~ Friday, August 26th

Tickets start at $15

For Tickets Visit spiritmountain.com

Hwy 18, Grand Ronde, OR ~ spiritmountain.com ~ 1.800.760.7977